    - A. For academic staff, you must find a professor from the host university, and receive an Invitation Letter from the professor with specific dates that are agreed upon by both sides (which includes the mandatory teaching hours).
    - B. For administrative staff, there are 2 options:
      - (1) to attend an Staff Week which is organized by the host university on predetermined dates, which you can find by searching online at the university websites, or
      - (2) to find a staff member to host you at the university, and receive an invitation letter from the staff member who is willing to train you on your specific role/field
  9. Administrative staff must also submit a permit from the direct manager and the head of the department who approves the staff's travel within the framework of the program.
- * If there are no specific travel dates yet, the employee will be asked to submit an additional signed approval from his department head confirming his/her travel on the specific dates (when available).
  - * As part of the program's selection process, administrative staff will be asked to prepare an English presentation on internationalization in his/her faculty/unit before a committee that includes the vice Rector.
  - * Preference will be given to administrative staff who will take part in an international course that will be opened in 2019.
  - * Priority will be given to those who previously hosted a colleague at the University of Haifa within the framework of the Erasmus Plus program.
  - * All documents must be issued in English.
  - * All documents should be submitted to Ms. Lilach Bareket room number 226 international school, "student building" lbareket@univ,haifa.ac.il
  - * The final decision regarding the academic staff admitted to this program will be taken by a committee overseen by the Rector's office.

The application deadline for the academic year 2019 is 1.1.2019.

Travel is possible in this program until July 2019.

Once approved:

- 1) Once your staff mobility is approved by the University of Haifa, please note that it then must be approved by the host University as well in order to receive the mobility grant
- 2) Mobility agreement- A “Mobility Agreement” sets out the programme of teaching / training to be followed; it defines the components of the teaching or training period abroad and emphasizes the mutual responsibility for the quality of the mobility of both the sending institution and the receiving institution. The teaching / training agreement will be sent by the host university. Mrs. Lilach Bareket should sign the agreement as the Erasmus+ coordinator.
- 3) Application form for Erasmus+ administrative staff training program:
At least a month before the mobility, Administrative Staff should get an HR travel form to approve their mobility as an external training:
\(טופס בקשה לנסיעה לחו"ל לסגל מנהלי במסגרת תכנית ארסמוס +\)
- * It is the responsibility of the staff members to arrange their own insurance policy. Accommodation and flight tickets will be arranged according to the host university policy (in most cases the staff members are also responsible on this).
- 4) The host university will issue the reimbursement of the grant directly to the staff member. In some cases, there may be taxes on the grant amount, depending on the laws of the country of the host university.
- 5) The traveling staff should represent the University of Haifa at the hosting university. Therefore outgoing staff should arrange before the trip marketing material about the university's international school programs + prepare a presentation on an international subject that he/she can present and develop with the partners abroad.
- 6) It is the responsibility of the sending unit/ department to provide suitable gifts that the employee will take with him to the host university (in terms of budget and purchase of the gifts).
