

W www.uhaifa.org E infograd@univ.haifa.ac.il P +972-4-824-0766 F +972-4-824-0391

University of Haifa, International School, 199 Abba Hushi Blvd, Haifa 3498838, Israel

 University of Haifa International Graduate Programs  Graduate Life in Haifa

 Graduate Life in Haifa

International Graduate Programs

Application Deadline:
Early - March 15
Late - May 31

The University of Haifa, established in 1972, situated near Carmel National Park, within a beautiful natural landscape in the mountains along the Mediterranean coast of Israel.

The University's distinctive mission is to foster academic excellence in an atmosphere of tolerance and multiculturalism - an environment which contributes to excellent research and to more exceptional, creative and productive alumni. The academic excellence is showcased in many various interdisciplinary and international programs, and by means of collaborations with academic institutions around the world.

The University reserves the right to change the information presented here without notice.

It is your responsibility to contact us to verify the validity of this information or visit <http://graduate.haifa.ac.il> for the complete policy.

International MA Programs

All international graduate programs offered at the University of Haifa are taught in English. Students are expected to take three to five courses each semester. Students wishing to pursue a thesis track may be required to remain at the University for additional time after completion of coursework.

One-Year Programs (coursework can be completed over three consecutive semesters)

- Child Development
- Holocaust Studies
- National Security Studies
- Diplomacy Studies
- Israel Studies
- Peace and Conflict Management
- German & European Studies
- Jewish Studies
- Prehistoric Archaeology
- Global Health Leadership & Administration (MPH)
- Maritime Civilizations
- Statistics
- MBA in Global Green

Extended Programs (coursework will be more than three semesters)

- Dual-Degree in International Relations with University of Warsaw
- International MBA
- Marine Geosciences (MSc)

Language Courses

- Arabic
- Hebrew

Note: The language courses are not a part of the graduate programs. Students may register for them separately.

Tuition and Fees

For international students, cost for the full academic year is approximately US $ 10,000*. This amount includes tuition, fees for university services, and mandatory Israeli health insurance. Additional costs to take into consideration include living expenses such as dormitories or apartment rental expenses, food and personal expenses. Note: Tuition is reviewed annually in August.

Admission Requirements

- Original documentation of undergraduate diploma and transcript from accredited institution of higher education
- Minimum 3.0 GPA, average of 80% or equivalent
- Two recommendation letters
- Personal statement
- Curriculum Vitae/Résumé
- TOEFL scores (if native language is not English)

Note: Additional documents and/or pre-requisite courses may be required, depending on the program.

Scholarships

The International School of the University of Haifa offers needs-based scholarships for international students. Visit our website for additional scholarship opportunities.

Accommodations

All international students are enrolled in a full-time program of study are eligible to live in on-campus housing. The University of Haifa offers apartments of three or six single rooms, each room with its own private bathroom, shared kitchen and living space. The dormitories provide many facilities for student use. Note: Applications must be submitted by the early application deadline, March 15th, to guarantee eligibility for on-campus housing.

Scholarship Application
Deadline:
April 15th

Program Application
Deadline:
March 15th